

Remuneration report 2023

1. INTRODUCTION

As of 1 January 2020, Talenom Plc complies in full with the 2020 Finnish Corporate Governance Code issued by the Securities Market Association. The Corporate Governance Code is available on the website of the Securities Market Association at www.cgfinland.fi. In addition to the Corporate Governance Code, Talenom Plc complies in its decision-making and corporate governance with the Finnish Limited Liability Companies Act, securities market legislation, and other legal provisions concerning listed companies, Talenom Plc's Articles of Association, and the rules and guidelines issued by Nasdaq Helsinki Ltd.

This remuneration report is also available on the company's website at investors.talenom.com/en. In accordance with the Limited Liability Companies Act and the Articles of Association, the highest responsibility for the governance and operations of Talenom is held by its governing bodies, which are the General Meeting of Shareholders, Board of Directors and CEO.

The principles and decision-making processes for the remuneration of the Board of Directors and CEO and for the key terms of the service contract are set forth in Talenom Plc's remuneration policy. The company's remuneration policy applies to all employees of the company. The key principles of remuneration are its transparency and market orientation, as well as remuneration based on good performance. The company's remuneration policy applies to the company's Board of Directors and CEO. The objective of the company's remuneration policy is to encourage and reward management for work that is in line with its current strategy and for compliance with set rules, as well as motivate them to strive for the success of Talenom Group. Effective and competitive remuneration is an essential tool for hiring competent directors and executives at the company, which in turn contributes to the company's financial success and good governance. Remuneration supports achievement of the company's objectives, implementation of the strategy and long-term performance.

Remuneration in accordance with the remuneration policy consists of the following components:

- Basic salary and employee benefits where Talenom applies local market practices, legislation and regulations
- A short-term incentive scheme whose purpose is to guide the performance of an individual and the organisation and support fast implementation of strategic projects
- A long-term remuneration scheme designed to commit key personnel to the company. Long-term incentives aim to commit management to the company and harmonise their interests with those of shareholders.

Development of remuneration in relation to the financial development of the company

The following table and diagrams present the trend in the remuneration of the Board of Directors and CEO compared to the trend in the average remuneration of Group employees and the financial development of the Group during the past five financial periods. In accordance with Talenom's remuneration policy, part of the remuneration of the CEO consists of short-term and long-term incentives that are linked to the operating result. The CEO's remuneration for 2023 was increased by the first vesting period 2020-2023 of the performance share plan 2020-2024 coming to an end.

The options granted in 2016 and 2019 and the sharp increase in the company's share price had a positive effect on the value of long-term incentives in 2018-2020 (subscription to 2016A, 2016B and 2016C options) and in 2022 (subscription to 2019 options). The amount paid in remuneration to the Board of Directors rose in 2020 and 2023 as the number of Board members increased by one and remuneration increased.

The Board members do not participate in the company's share-based incentive schemes, and Board fees are not paid as shares in the company

3. REMUNERATION OF THE CEO

The remuneration of the CEO and the terms of his or her service contract are decided by the Board of Directors within the limits of the valid remuneration policy presented to the general meeting.

The company's CEO is Otto-Pekka Huhtala. In line with the CEO contract, the CEO will work in the task until further notice and the period of notice applied to the contract is two months. A normal pension contribution in accordance with the pension legislation is paid on the CEO's salary. No supplementary pension contributions are paid to the CEO.

Fixed salary component

The fixed salary component of the CEO consists of a monthly salary and fringe benefits. In 2023, the annual salary including fringe benefits was EUR 214,433.62, of which fringe benefits accounted for EUR 240.00.

Short-term incentive scheme

The CEO, like the other members of the Executive Board, is entitled to a performance bonus when predetermined criteria are met.

The criteria consider the company's revenue, EBITDA, EBIT, customer retention, operational efficiency, personnel satisfaction, progress in product development and product group-specific growth. In addition, the Board of Directors separately assesses the performance of the CEO in his or her task and decides on a separate performance bonus to be paid to the CEO.

The Board of Directors set targets for the company's revenue and operating profit as the earning criteria for the CEO's short-term incentive in 2023. Minimum values had to be achieved in both. The weight for both were 50%. In 2023, short-term performance bonuses based on the 2022 result were paid in the amount of EUR 20,000.00.

Long-term incentive schemes

The purpose of the long-term performance bonus is to motivate the CEO to increase shareholder value over the long term and further commit the CEO to the company. CEO Otto-Pekka Huhtala is included in the 2020-2024 performance share plan and the 2021, 2022 and 2023 option schemes.
